

10 Best Study Spots Near Georgia Tech

On-Campus Study Locations

Barnes & Noble on Tech Square, Second Floor

Georgia Tech Barnes and Noble and Starbucks

Barnes and Noble at Georgia Tech Starbucks. Image courtesy of Georgia Tech.

Distance from Rambler: 7-minute walk

Address: 48 5th St NW

The Barnes & Noble next to Scheller College of Business in Tech Square is a bustling spot, especially during class changes. After picking up your Starbucks, escape from the crowds by going to the second level of the Barnes & Noble where you'll find open, quieter tables in between the Buzzcard Center and the gift shop.

Crosland Tower, Rooftop

Crosland Tech rooftop at Georgia Tech

Georgia Tech Crosland Tower rooftop is surrounded with protective artwork. Image courtesy of Georgia Tech.

Distance from Rambler: 20-minute walk

Address: 249-371 Bobby Dodd Way NW

For a unique outdoor study spot, head to the roof of Crosland Tower. Here you'll find views of campus and Atlanta while looking through the "Crosland Chroma" art barriers that give the spot some fresh color while keeping the patio a safe spot to study. Talk about a spot with a cool view!

Clough Undergraduate Learning Commons (CULC), Steps on Floor 1

Students studying on Georgia Tech CULC steps

Georgia Tech Clough Undergraduate Learning Center iconic large steps are on the first floor.

Distance from Rambler: 20-minute walk

Address: 266 4th St NW

The Clough Undergraduate Learning Commons, also known as the CULC, is one of the most popular spots to study on campus. One of my personal favorite spots are the iconic steps found on the first floor that double as seating for students to catch up on readings in between classes.

Kaldi's Coffee

Kaldi's coffee logo at Georgia Tech

Kaldi's Coffee is found on the second floor of the Clough Undergraduate Learning Center.

Distance from Rambler: 20-minute walk

Address: 266 4th St NW

Kaldi's Coffee, also found in the CULC, offers specialty beverages and snacks to help fuel your next study session. Pro tip: If you are looking for a quiet place to work, these tables are the least crowded in the morning before classes.

Price Gilbert Library, Floor 3

Georgia Tech students studying on Floor 3 of Price Gilbert Library

Price Gilbert Library has plenty of seating for students looking for a group study environment.

Image courtesy of Georgia Tech.

Distance from Rambler: 20-minute walk

Address: 686-704 Cherry St NW

Price Gilbert Library is another popular spot for students to do homework and study with friends. If you're looking for a spot where you and your friends can chat while you work, PG 3 is one of my favorite spots for group study. The views of campus from the floor to ceiling windows also give the library a more tranquil and calming feel.

Tables Near Tech Green

Georgia Tech students near Tech Green

Georgia Tech students often use the tables and seating near Tech Green for club tabling or an outdoor study session. Image courtesy of Georgia Tech.

Distance from Rambler: 21-minute walk

Address: North Avenue NW

Another favorite outdoor spot among students are the tables near Tech Green on the right of the sidewalk when walking towards the Student Center. Work on your homework assignments under the shade from the trees while you watch the bustling activities on Tech Green unfold throughout the day. If you need a study break, these tables are also right next to the Tech Green hammocks!

Off-Campus Study Locations

Daydreamer Cafe

A person with manicured nails hands a coffee cup with a blue DAYDREAMER sleeve to another, both reaching for the cup—evoking the cozy vibe of coffee shops near Georgia Tech. The softly blurred background adds to the inviting scene.

Distance from Rambler: 10-minute walk

Address: 859 Spring Street NW

Daydreamer Coffee located in the lobby of Whistler has quickly popped up as a popular spot for anyone looking for a coffee shop with an aesthetic backdrop. From carefully chosen furnishings to intricate design elements, the moody, maximalist decor not only enhances the visual appeal of the coffee shop but also reflects the effort to provide patrons with more than just a cup of coffee. The cafe offers hand-crafted coffee, teas and pastries.

Momo Cafe, Upstairs

Momo Cafe near Georgia Tech's campus

Momo Cafe is just a short walk from Georgia Tech's campus. Image courtesy of Atlanta Coffee Shops.

Distance from Rambler: 15-minute walk

Address: 95 8th St NW 100

For a study spot just a few minutes from campus, Momo Cafe is a crowd favorite. Here you can find Japanese-inspired specialty drinks and pastries for a unique snack to spice up your normal study session. If you get hungry, the cafe is also attached to a full restaurant with a similar Japanese-inspired menu, Momonoki.

Caribou Coffee Company

Caribou Coffee in Midtown

Caribou Coffee is just a short drive from Georgia Tech's campus. Image courtesy of Trip Advisor.

Distance from Rambler: 5-minute drive

Address: 1000 Piedmont Ave NE

Caribou Coffee is located near Piedmont Park, a short drive from campus. This spot has some of my favorite frozen coffee treats for when you're looking for a sweeter pick me up. Stop in for a Caribou Cooler blended coffee and a bagel sandwich to kickstart your Saturday study session.

Bloom Coffee Company

Bloom coffee shop in Midtown Atlanta is near Georgia Tech's campus and Rambler Atlanta

Bloom Coffee Company is just a short drive from campus with unique latte flavors and delicious pastries. Image courtesy of Bloom Coffee Company.

Distance from Rambler: 15-minute drive

Address: 2025 Peachtree Rd NW

Bloom Coffee Co. is a local coffee shop that's a fifteen-minute drive from campus. This cozy coffee shop offers unique flavors such as Maple Sea Salt and Island Mocha lattes— the perfect boost to keep you motivated during your study hour.

If you have any further questions, don't hesitate to reach out to our leasing team!